GO TO COAST FOR IMPICTRYOUTS FOR MEET AT STADIUM

CONTESTS TODAY AT 4 CITIES

Track and Field Events Attract Record Fields From All Over the U. S.

Ignorance

The cream of the nation's athletes will make their way to the stadium for the final trials for the American Olympic team, scheduled for this city, July 14 and 15.

Never before in the history of Olympic competition in this country have there been so many aspirants for the honor of representing Uncle Sam in the Olympic games and never before has interest run so high.

The stadiums of three famous universities, Franklin Field at Philadelphia, Briggs Field, Chicago, and Tulane Stadium at New Orleans, will be the scene of the Eastern, Mid-Western and Southern trials respectively. At Franklin Field, the track and field events will be held.

Every college and athlete club who wishes to compete for the honor of representing Uncle Sam in the Olympic games will be in the city for the four great meets. Some of the classiest and most talented athletes will be in the city for the four great meets. Some of the classiest and most talented athletes will be in the city for the four great meets.

Entry Lists Include Every Known Athlete

In the East such men as Alfred Brown, Loran Morrison, at Morris, Harry Lever, Andy Kelly and Billy Moore are entered in the dashes.

The quarter at Franklin field will be contested by Frank Shea, Ted Smith, Earl King, Billy Maxam, Mike DeGroot and other Jack Bakers. Billy Maxam, John W. Baker, Roy Crawford and other athletes are in the half-mile event.

The longer runs the class in equally high class, such runners as Mike DeGroot, Bob Crawford, Larry Smith, John DeGroot, and other athletes are in the half-mile event.
